

LETTER FROM PASTOR MAXEAU

Dear Friends,
We are very thankful to God and to every one who allow us in the Valley of Hope to start with the goat project. It is working very well and we start to spread it with some other people in the community of Bernard Galette Chambon. I received last week the goat project report from our goat supervisor. We have now a total of 70 female goats. They already give 39 babies. Six of the babies were males; we sell them and buy females.

For now we have 39 new people in the project. Those received each of them a female baby goat. The number of people having goat now is 109.

Since November 2013, we started with a chicken's project. We had 300 chickens that we gave to the women in the church to sell so that they can have some income for themselves and also we can continue to buy new chickens. Now we have 300 again and they will be ready to sell in 15 days.

May God richly bless you.
Pastor Maxeau

SPRING 2013

HUG GIRLS IN NEW HOME

Earlier this year, the 17 HUG-a-Child girls moved into a newer and more spacious home with the help of a few HUG board members, Missionaries Gerritt and Julie Van Wagenen, and several others. The home is located in the same area—a suburb of Port au Prince—where the girls were formerly housed. According to HUG Founder Donald Lyons, First Presbyterian Church of Columbia, S.C., provided “many of the needed funds to get the infrastructure of this home in order.” He adds that Open Doors Baptist Church in New York “has been a tremendous help in furnishing the home.”

When the girls walked from their very crowded former home and saw their new, more spacious 3-bedroom home for the first time, they squealed, yelled and hugged one another in joy!

NEW MY FATHER'S GUEST HOUSE MANAGER IN PLACE

For seven years, Phyll Van Es has been praying that the Lord would give her an opportunity to serve in Haiti. With the support and prayers from her home church in Iowa, Phyll boarded a plane in December to travel to Haiti to become the new house manager for My Father's Guest House. Before settling at #16 Rue Dahlia, she first visited three Haitian missions that she served at from 2007 to the present.

She will be overseeing reservations, grocery shopping, and hospitality, as well as the staff at the Guest House.

"I am so excited to be here!" expressed Phyll. "Words cannot express the joy I feel."

My Father's Guest House, located in a suburb of Port au Prince, is available for church groups, missionaries, pastors, etc. Visit www.myfathersguesthouse.com or call: 1-786-472-1684.

AN IRONBELIEVER

On September 28th, Paige Tyler, a HUG board member and active volunteer in Haiti during short term mission trips, will be competing in an IRONMAN triathlon in Chattanooga, Tenn., to benefit the HUG-a-Child girls. The triathlon is a long distance event that consists of a 2.4 mile swim, a 112 mile bike ride, and a 26.2 mile run. All has to be accomplished in a strict time frame of 17 hours. Paige's goal is to raise $17,000 for the 17 girls at HUG-a-Child girls home. She said that all of the proceeds donated during her months of training prior to the event will be donated to assist with the girls' basic needs of shelter, clothing, and food.

To help, donate to www.haitiundergod.org and indicate that you would like it to go toward the fundraising goal of $17,000 for HUG an Iron Believer. Send email inquiries to Paige at paigetylerHUG@gmail.com.

PROGRESS ON CHA CHA

The Mud Dogs, including HUG CEO Bruce Williams (center), spent several days in January constructing walls for the new church at the top of Cha Cha Mountain. Pastor Maxeau assisted, while his wife kept the Mud Dogs well fed. This summer, a youth group from Columbia, S.C. will help as well.

The goal is for the Mud Dogs to return in January 2015 to help with the remainder of the project. The church will hopefully be dedicated in the spring of 2015.
